

Demonstrating Artists Tent

Grand Avenue, East of Escondido Boulevard
Organized by the Escondido Art Association

Ever wonder how artists create works of art? Enter the Demonstrating Artists Tent and watch as artists work their creative wonders in a variety of media. Some of the artists who will be demonstrating during First Night Escondido include:

Betty Erickson

Watercolor

Artist and art teacher, Betty exhibits her work widely throughout the region. Come and watch her famous watercolor techniques.

Janye Kratzer

Gourd Design

Janye has received outstanding recognition and numerous distinctive awards for her fabulous gourd designs. Wonderful to watch for the whole family.

Lake Jewels, Emily Robertson
Watercolor

Emily Roberson

Watercolor

Emily's paintings are light and airy. Her intent is to bring happiness and pleasure to her viewer's soul.

Tom Tiedeman

Watercolor

Tom's watercolors exhibit a bold contrast to lights and darks using a broad range of subject matter - animals to architecture, realistic landscapes to loose flower impressions.

Janet Tranter

Acrylic Painting - Wearable Art

Janet uses wearable art "canvases" that are created by her mother. Together they create this unique work that combines their great love and appreciation of the deserts and the visual arts.

Evelyn Alemanni

Fine Art Silk Painting
